Application no. 44167/13
Glasgow v. the United Kingdom

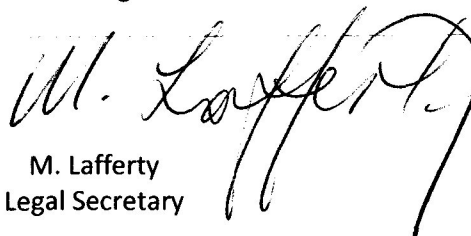

Dear Sir,

I acknowledge receipt of your recent correspondence.

As you were advised in our previous letter, your application was incomplete and no file has been kept. In order for your complaints to be put before the Court, you must submit a fresh, complete application. No correspondence seeking to supplement your incomplete application will be accepted.

No papers have been kept by the Court in respect of your incomplete application and any future communication from you will only be filed and acknowledged if a complete application which complies with Rule 47 of the Rules of Court is submitted.

Yours faithfully,
For the Registrar

M. Lafferty
Legal Secretary
